

Announcing the Philadelphia Pathwork Transformation Program

Starting September 2024

We invite you to embark on a journey of self-knowledge, growth and lasting change

The Philadelphia Pathwork Transformation Program (TP) offers you the opportunity to explore your inner self to gain a true understanding of who you are and how you create your life experience.

You'll be part of a cohort who share your passion and longing to understand life more deeply guided by the wisdom of the Pathwork Lectures. Led by experienced leaders who have themselves experienced deep levels of transformation, the group provides a safe and strong container to hold each other in this exploration.

Program overview
